FROM THE PRESIDENT: We finally received nearly perfect weather for our March Mammoth ski trip. There were 16 Snowbounders that showed up to ski or just eat and walk on this trip. Unfortunately, Jake and Sandra Jacobson could not join us. Jake has back issues and Sandra is still recovering from her ankle injury. Sue Highland and Tom Newsome, a couple we do not see very often, even joined us for a day of skiing and our evening pizza fest. The depth of snow at McCoy station was about 30 feet. Skiing conditions were near-perfect and no one was seriously hurt. - Ray
